

10th
European Conference
on Mental Health

Pre-Conference ONLINE presentations

Tuesday Sep 13 16.00-17.35

Session	1	2	3	4
16:00-16:20	Evaluation of social anxiety and health anxiety in health workers in the Covid 19 pandemic period in selected hospitals of Shahid Beheshti University in Tehran in 2021. Jamileh Mohtashami, Iran	Visuo-perceptual abilities and visual memory in a recent onset First Episode Psychosis sample: a strong predictor of global impairment. Alessia Avila, UK	Child health nursing intervention with abused families: the emotional process experienced by nurses. Maria da Luz Rosa, Portugal	Work Addiction, Perceived Stress, Job Burnout, and Work Engagement: A Network Perspective. Piotr Bereznowski, Poland
16:25-16:45	Experiences of dual military service members: Challenges, well-being, and coping strategies. Lisa Williams, Canada	To Paris on a horse: Psychosis and cognitive impairment related to vitamin b12 deficiency in an elderly patient who gave up on meat. Mauro Pinho, Portugal	Nurse assistant's experience of how they pay attention to and encounter adult persons receiving municipal health- and social care, and who are in grief in conjunction the death of a loved one. Anne-Lie Larsson, Sweden	Burnout in Family Medicine Doctors: Do Analysis and Intervention at a Micro Level Matter? Rita Aguiar Fonseca, Portugal
16:50-17:10	'Kriya Yoga': A potential solution for the mental health issues of health care workers. Pooja Ojha, India	Topiramate as an option for the treatment of alcohol use disorders? Margarida De Barros, Portugal	Psychotherapeutic nursing intervention for anxiety control in perinatal period. Cátia Vicente, Portugal	Emotional labor of nurses who care for children with palliative needs and their parents. Ana Inês Lourenço da Costa, Portugal
17:15-17:35	Social support and its role on schizophrenia (in a post-pandemic world). Rebeca Cohen, Portugal	The perks of understanding and the case with the experience of time in depression. Afonso Gouveia, Portugal	Creative activities and psychoeducation. Elisabete Maria Cordeiro Vitorino dias Fragoso, Portugal	Withstanding Psychological Distress Among Internally Displaced Yazidis in Iraq: Six Years After Attack by the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant. Omar Rasheed, Spain

Pre-Conference ONLINE presentations

Tuesday Sep 13 17.45-18.30

Session	5	6	7	8
17:45-18:05	Predicting the Probability of Counselling for Cigarette Smoking Cessation among Pregnant Smokers with Mental Health and Substance Use Disorders: NSDUH 2016-2019. Taghreed Salameh, Turkey	Promoting Resilience in Adolescents with Mental Health Disorder. Inês Cristina Parrinha Serôdio, Portugal	Promotion of the sexual self-concept of people with mental illness. Alexandre Santos de Oliveira, Portugal	Culturally Adapting CBT Program START NOW for Migrants. Lyla Schwartz, Switzerland
18:10-18:30	Research protocol for learning needs assessment. Irena Makivić, Slovenia	Well-being, health and loneliness during the COVID-19 pandemic - Adolescents' and young adults' experiences. Jessica Hemberg, Finland	Biological clock: the underestimated antidepressive. Bárbara Mesquita, Portugal	Late-life suicide: a review of prevalence, risk factors and prevention of suicidal behavior. Daniela Oliveira Martins, Portugal
18:35-18:55	Becoming the disease: Looping effect and illness behaviour in psychiatry. Joana Cardão, Portugal	Reasons for loneliness amongst adolescents and young adults: A narrative literature review. Yulia Korzhina, Finland	Abortion and Women's Mental Health. Margarida Alves, Portugal	Understanding Algerian international student mental health experiences in UK (United Kingdom) universities: difficulties of disclosure, help-seeking and coping strategies. Nesrine Boussaoui, UK.